

SUNSET EIGHT CARS ARE DERAILED

RELIEF TRAIN HURRIES TO SCENE

Two Women Passengers In Tourist Car Reported Injured.

WRECKED TRAIN WAS COMING TO EL PASO

The Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio passenger train, the Sunset Limited, No. 9, due to arrive in El Paso Monday morning at 1:30 o'clock, was derailed two miles west of Colado, 123 miles east of El Paso at 5:20 o'clock Monday morning. Eight of the 12 cars leaving the track. Two women, whose names have not been learned in El Paso, who were traveling in a tourist car were injured. One sustained a spinal injury and another sustained a cut on the right leg between the knee and ankle.

A special train composed of four coaches, two tourists, a standard sleep-er and a baggage car, left El Paso for the scene of the derailment at 8 o'clock Monday morning, city time, and reached the scene of the wreck about noon. On the special train were a supply of surgical necessities in charge of Dr. R. L. Ramey and a corps of trained nurses. G. S. Wald, superintendent of the El Paso division and assistant superin-tendent G. W. Fitzgerald and claim agent Douglas, assistant superin-tendent R. M. Hoover is at the scene of the wreck.

Derailed Monday Morning.
The derailment occurred at 5:20 a. m. Monday, two miles west of Colado when the train was running over a curve portion of track at a speed of something like 30 miles an hour. The baggage car was the first to leave the track, the dining car, the sleepers Paso Robles and Carland and the observa-tion car following it.

The baggage car and the negro coach are in such a position that they may be straightened without much difficulty. The train was in charge of conductor Merriman and engineer Hobbs in the cab. Immediately after the derail-ment, conductor Merriman went into Chocoma, the nearest telegraph station and reported the accident.

Physician Helps Injured.
A physician, who was among the passengers, gave the two injured wom-en medical attention. The woman who sustained a wrenched back was placed in a berth in a tourist car. The physi-cian's examination showed that no other injuries had been sustained by her. The other woman, who sustained a clean cut on the right leg between the knee and ankle, was placed in the observation car after the injury had been dressed and bandaged.

Cause Not Known.
The cause of the derailment has not been ascertained. Train No. 16, which left El Paso Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, had passed over the portion of track where the derailment occurred at 12:50 Monday morning without acci-dent. The engine did not leave the track.

The train over the G. H. has been unusually heavy for two weeks, on ac-count of the movement of colonists to the southwest, and the equipment of the derailed train was 13 cars all told, eight of which left the track.

Will Arrive Here at Five O'clock.
The special relief train which left El Paso at 8 o'clock this morning should reach El Paso Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The injured will be brought here and carried to Hotel Dieu. Colado not being a telegraph station, con-ductor Merriman and engineer Hobbs ran the engine to Chocoma, eight miles west to report the derailment.

Work trains have been sent to the scene of the wreck from both the east and the west terminals of the division. A temporary track will be built around the wreck.

MRS. JULIA WARD HOWE DIES AT SUMMER HOME

Middletown, R. I., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, the author, died here at her summer home today.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe was born in New York city on the 27th day of May, 1819. Her ancestry, on her father's side, included such men as Roger Williams and governor Samuel Ward of Rhode Island, while she was distant-ly related to general Marion, familiarly known as the "Swamp Fox." Her father was a man of wealth and was president and founder of the New York Bank of Commerce.

When Julia Ward was 22 years old she spent the summer in Boston and there met Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe, whom she afterwards married. A week after she was married, in 1843, she and her husband went abroad in company with another bride couple, Dr. and Mrs. Horace Mann. They visited different countries on the continent and it was while Mrs. Howe was in Rome in March, 1844, that her first child was born.

Mrs. Howe was a frequent contributor to some of the best magazines of the country. She was also a poetess who found a ready response in the hearts of the people and then, as an evidence of her versatility, she turned her pen to play writing, at which she was also successful. Perhaps her most famous work was the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," which is taught to every school child in the country today. This work was written by Mrs. Howe after a visit to the camp of the Army of the Potomac during the war.

KETCHEL'S SLAYER CAPTURED AND CONFESSES

Body of Pugilist Is Taken to Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 17.—Walter A. Hutz, who shot and killed Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion of the world, was captured Sunday at the home of Thomas Haggard, one mile from Niangua, Mo. Hutz was taken to the Webster county jail at Marshfield, where he is being closely guarded.

After being placed in his cell, the prisoner made a confession in which he declared he shot Ketchel in self defense. He says he ordered the prize fighter to throw up his hands and when he did not obey him, he fired.

Slayer Alleged Deserter.
Local officers assert that Ketchel's slayer admitted that his real name is Walter Dipey; that his home is at Webb City, Mo., and that he is a deserter from the United States army.

To avoid detection he roamed over the country, working as a barber until he met Goldie Smith, at Bluff, Christian county, Mo., a month ago. The two came here and secured work on the Dickinson ranch.

Says Ketchel Insulted Her.
Goldie Smith, over whom the shoot-ing is said to have occurred, reiterated her statement of yesterday, that Ketchel has made insulting remarks to her and that when she told Dipey, to her and that when she told Dipey, she admitted, however, that she and the slayer were not man and wife, saying she had known Hutz little more than a month. Beyond this the woman has refused to talk.

The slayer has not been told of the statement made by Mrs. Smith and he still maintains she is his wife.

Funeral Services Held.
Funeral services over the body of the fighter were held at the Elks club here Sunday and the corps was taken today to Grand Rapids, Mich., the home of Ketchel's parents. The body is accompanied by R. E. Dickerson, with whom Ketchel was visiting at the time he decided to buy a ranch in this county.

MURDER CASE IS NEARING THE END

Arguments May Be Concluded Before Tuesday Morning.

EXPECT JURY TO GET CASE TUESDAY

Before a crowd that packed the 34th district courtroom to the limit, Judge J. E. Wharton, Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock opened the closing speech for the defense in the case of John Leech, whose trial on the charge of the murder of E. Kohlberg, on June 17, last, has been in progress the past two weeks. At 1 o'clock the crowd began to gather, and at 1:30, not a vacant seat was available. Many women were among the spectators.

Judge Wharton pleaded man-slaughter on the basis of the "unwrit-ten law," which was brought into the case, and justifiable homicide on the score of self defense. He also covered considerable of the testimony intro-duced during the trial and made a strong plea for his client.

Howe Opens for State.
District attorney Howe, following the conclusion of the introduction of tes-timony Saturday, made opening argu-ment for the state beginning Saturday afternoon. Mr. Howe attacked the testi-mony of Leech, pointing out what he stated were the inconsistencies and traversed considerable of the other tes-timony.

Mr. Howe was followed by attorney P. E. Gardner, of the defense, who opened his argument Saturday after-noon and closed Monday morning shortly after 10 o'clock. Mr. Gardner appealed, in the main, to the sym-pathies of the jury, and dealt with part of the testimony in the case.

Judge T. A. Falvey, of the state, followed Mr. Gardner and discussed the law relative to the evidence in its every phase, and defined the law relative to the various degrees of homicide. Judge Falvey closed his argument at 11:30, and special judge Patrick H. Clarke then adjourned court until 1:30 Monday afternoon when Judge Wharton began his argument.

Moore to Close Case.
Attorney Victor Moore will follow Judge Wharton Monday afternoon, and it is probable that he will speak sev-eral hours. He has announced his in-tention of also covering every phase of the case, and in that event it is not probable that the case will get to the jury before Tuesday as the instructions of Judge Clarke are to be delivered following the closing argument.

Although retained to assist the state in the prosecution, neither W. W. Tur-ney, W. H. Burges, Dan Jackson or M. W. Stanton will address the jury. Mr. Jackson and Mr. Stanton have been in the courtroom during a considerable part of the trial, as have also Turney and Burges.

Mrs. Leech Present.
Leech was accompanied in the court-room Monday afternoon by his wife and children. Mrs. Leech has not re-covered from her nervous breakdown and a trained nurse was in attendance.

Fort Dodge, Iowa, Oct. 17.—It is an-nounced that funeral services for sen-ator Jonathan P. Dolliver will be held on Thursday at 2 o'clock.

The suddenness of Dolliver's death from heart disease, while a physician was listening to the irregular beats of the organ with a stethoscope, took every one so much by surprise that some of the funeral arrangements are only tentative.

ATHLETICS IN LEAD FROM SECOND

Overall Knocked Out of the Box In the Last Half of the Third Inning.

McINTYRE, KNOWN HERE, PUT IN PLACE

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 17.—Battering Overall out of the box in the third inning, the Philadelphia Athletics got away to a flying start in the world's championship series by defeating the erstwhile invincible Chicago Cubs by the score of 4 to 1 in the opening game of the great series at Shibe park this afternoon.

McIntyre to the Rescue.
McIntyre, the Brooklyn wonder who joined Chicago this season, was sent in to stem the tide of defeat after the fatal third when Overall was forced to the bench by Bender and his band of braves. McIntyre worked with the desperation of a man who was fighting for his life and managed to prevent the defeat from being a rout.

Bender Makes Good.
Bender, the big Indian of the Phillies, upon whom the cunning Connie Mack is pinning his faith for a world beat-ing team, made more than good against the much heralded world champion Cubs. Bender was in perfect command at every inning and it was only by the longest chances and the bad field-ing of Strunk in center that anything got past the local flights. Bender is the hero of all Philadelphia because of his performance and will be sent in for the crucial game of the series.

First Score in Third.
Philadelphia scored first in the third. Baker landed a two bagger off of Over-all and was sent to third on a sacrifice by Davis. Murphy singled safely and Baker scored the first run. Murphy stole second and scored on Indian Ben-der's single. Lord scored the third run in the third by hitting a two bager to right field. He was advanced to third by Collins and scored on Baker's hot single.

Collins scored the final run in the eighth after getting to first on a base on balls. McIntyre lost his head and threw wild to Chance at first. This sent Collins to third. Baker hit the back field fence for two bases scoring.

Chicago's Only Score.
Chicago's only score came in the ninth. Tinker hit to center for a sin-gle which Strunk failed to field al-lowing Tinker to take the second. Kling singled and scored the admirable Tinker.

THE GAME BY INNINGS.
First Inning.
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 17.—First in-nings. Chicago at bat: Scheckard struck out; Schulte made a pretty single, but was caught stealing second by Thomas in a pretty peg; Hoffman went out on a ground to Collins, who threw him out to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia at bat: Strunk was out at first; Lord lifted a high one to Hoff-man in center field; Collins singled to left, but was caught stealing second. No runs.

Second Inning.
Chicago went out in one, two, three order. No runs.

Baker for Philadelphia drove a two-bagger to left and was sacrificed to third by Davis. Baker scored on Mur-phy's single to left. Murphy stole sec-ond. Barry was out at first. Murphy scored on Bender's single. Strunk went out on a fly to Collins. Two runs.

Third Inning.

For Philadelphia, Lord drove a two-bagger into right center, went to third on Collins's sacrifice and scored on Baker's second hit of the game. One run.

Fourth Inning.
Chicago—Schulte drew a base on balls off Indian Bender, but got no further than first. The next two men going out and Schulte was caught by catcher Thomas stealing second. No runs. Mc-Intyre replaced Overall in the second half of the fourth for Chicago.

Philadelphia—Retiring in one, two, three order, the Philadelphia club could not get to McIntyre's curves for any-thing better than a putout. No runs.

Fifth Inning.
Chicago—Big chief Bender again laid his whip to Collins low in the fifth. The Chicago batsmen, Chance, Zimmer-man and Steinfield going out in order. These being Chicago's best batters, the

DROWNING RUSE FAILS AND PHILLIPS IS BACK

Dalhart, Tex., Oct. 17.—Hicks Phil-lips, who was out on bond on a charge of shooting Floyd Tandy and who dis-appeared in August at Carlsbad, after leaving his grip and a note on the bank of the Pecos river notifying his friends he had chosen a watery grave, and causing his bondsmen to offer a $500 reward for his recovery, voluntarily gave himself up to his bondsmen here Saturday night and is now securing new bondsmen.

Phillips's career since August has been attended with pathetic circum-stances from lack of funds and des-pendency. Entering the Sacramento mountains in New Mexico, he under-went many hardships for over 50 days, subsisting principally on game. He walked 75 miles to Tucuman and wrote his bondsmen he would be in Dalhart Saturday and to pull down the reward offered. Hicks Phillips has a host of friends who will render all help possible, when his trial in March comes up.
